You can also water-ski, sail a hobie cat or an outrigger canoe, plus a boat trip to Shell Village on Malolo Island (a charge of $2 per adult is levied by Solevu Village for inspection / tours of "Shell" Village). Musket Cove has a fleet of power boats which make access to nearby resorts both easy and inexpensive. You can also go hiking to secluded beaches with a picnic basket, or even charter a yacht or a motor cruiser. It is all there waiting for you.

Fiji is fast becoming a popular wedding and romantic destination. From the simplest barefoot wedding to a traditional affair with all the trimmings, our friendly wedding coordinator will be there to help you plan every detail of your special day. All weddings performed in Fiji are legally binding and marriage licences are easily arranged.

Whether you have a wedding party of two or one hundred, we offer a choice of catering arrangements and locations. There's silver table service under the stars, on the terrace or in the garden beside the restaurant, Dick's Place. You have the option of dining from an a'la carte menu, a set menu or an island feast.
