Nanuya Island Resort
Nanuya Lai Lai Island, Yasawa Group of Islands, Fiji

Fringed by coconut palms, white sandy beach and azure waters with spacious grounds and designed for minimal environmental impact. You can do as little or as much as you like.
Situated on 10 acres of land and is located on the northern tip of Nanuya Lai Lai Island, adjacent to Turtle Island, on the Blue Lagoon midway in the Yasawa Group.

We class ourselves as a 3 to 4 Star Resort, with a total of 12 Units to cater for your accommodation needs. The Resort is generated with 24 hour electricity (240 volts.

Whether you are making new friends or just relaxing, this is the perfect place for an afternoon or evening cocktail. Sing along with the band boys and join in for a bowl of Kava.

Our Chefs from the Taba (Tamba) Restaurant cater to all discerning tastes. We offer a delicious a-la-carte All Day and Evening Dinning Menus . Apart from a-la-carte we do have the occasional Themed Dinners and Entertainment. We pride ourselves on using as much of the local produce as possible venturing from European to Traditional Fijian, Indian and Asian Cuisine. Special dietary requirements may also be catered for. Food service begins at 8am and last orders are by 9pm. Special dietary requirements may also be catered for, please advise when booking.

SCUBA Diving and Dive Courses – come enjoy the underwater world with our Sister Company West Side Water Sports. If you have never dived before, you can try the Discover Scuba – this is a preview into the Under Water Diving World. Or for you certified divers, swim through, hard and soft corals with up to nearly 16 dive sites to chose from.

Visit the Sawa-I-Lau caves – a part where the Blue Lagoon Movie with Brook Shields was filmed. Tender boat ride for approx 45min further north of the Yasawa group and to enjoy the Caves.
