Thirty five kilometres off the west coast of Nadi (pronounced "Nandy") - Fiji's international gateway - Tokoriki is the northern most island in the Mamanuca group and borders the famous Yasawa Islands. Away from the hustle and the bustle of the other larger island resorts in the group, you have the feeling of being on your own private island retreat when you are here.

The thirty four bures and villas at Tokoriki are a magical combination of Fijian architecture and detailing with all of the modern luxuries and amenities expected in an upmarket experience. Your bure or villa is spacious, freestanding, air conditioned, and has its own private outdoor shower.
