

Redoubt Bay Lodge

At Redoubt Bay Lodge, the emphasis is on viewing wildlife and exploring the lakes surrounding cated in Big River Lakes and boundaries of the Redoubt Bay Critical Habitat Area, Redoubt Bay Lodge is only an approx. 45 minutes float plane flight away from Anchorage (across the Cook Inlet). Because Redoubt Bay is one of the easiest and closest accessible location for bear viewing from Anchorage and also the Kenai Peninsula, Redoubt Bay can be very popular. It also is a popular for sport fishermen.

Bears - main attraction of Redoubt Bay!
Nearby Wolverine Creek Cove attract bears, bear watchers and sport fisherman when the salmon is running. The salmon run typically is in July which makes the best month for bear viewing in the area. However often bears can be spotted starting middle of June through about mid-August (sightings are not guaranteed!). Bears sighted could be black and/or brown bears.

als: The lodge chefs prepare delicious 3-course dinner meals from fresh ingredients. Breakfast is eggs or French toast, giving a good start for the day's activities. Lunch is a lighter meal, often soup/salad and a small sandwich. Fresh baked goodies are available throughout the day. Special dietary needs can only be accommodated with advance notice.

Activities: Bear viewing especially in July is the main activity for guests (remember also attraction for fishermen). Besides bears, other wildlife can be spotted in the area such as different birds, bald eagles and even harbor seals! Guests explore the area by boat or skiff primarily. Kayaks are available for guest's use. Fishing is also offered. All activities are guided!

Enjoy a 2 Night / 2 Day experience to Redoubt Lodge. Package includes return flight from/to Anchorage, accommodation, all meals during stay, guided activities as outlined by boat, kayak or skiff.

Prices from $3999 per person based on twin share

Please note that bears typically are spotted between June 15 and Aug 15. Bear sightings are never guaranteed!)
